the metropolitan Bar.

We agree with Judge Du Relie only insofar as it can be shown that fraud was not intended by having thin ballots, the ballots themselves being prepared by the party overwhelmingly in the majority where the voting was done. In the cases of the mountain counties where thin ballots were used, the Republicans were in the majority.

The following neatly engraved an anouncements have been received by many Kichmond friends of the grooth, who is well known throughout Central kentucky:
